LOCATION

Eastham’s Hill Farmhouse is situated on the fringe of Crewkerne, a charming Somerset town with a rich history dating back to the 9th century. The town offers a range of amenities including supermarkets (Waitrose and Lidl), independent shops, cafes, and public houses. Educational needs are well-served with primary schools such as St. Bartholomew’s and Ashlands, and secondary education at Wadham School. For recreation, residents can enjoy facilities like the Crewkerne Aqua Centre, local cricket and football clubs, and the nearby Bincombe Beeches Local Nature Reserve. Transport links are excellent, with Crewkerne railway station providing services to London Waterloo and Exeter, and easy access to the A30 and A356 roads.
