Outside

To the front of the property is a block paved driveway; in turn leads to the front door and garage and a small gravelled area to the left hand side. A side gate beside the garage provides side access to the rear garden.

The rear garden is attractively landscaped into several interesting sections. To rear of the house is a patio area abutting the house which can be accessed from both the conservatory and utility room. Steps beyond the patio lead to the lawn with greenhouse and a rockery inset. A paved path leads to a further raised patio area with space for summer house. The rear garden also benefits from side access and an outside tap.
