Accommodation:

Coming to the market for the very first time since it was originally built over 60 years ago, 37 Back Street is a truly rare opportunity to acquire a substantial four-bedroom detached family home occupying an exceptionally large plot within one of Martock's most sought-after tucked away positions. Nestled within the heart of this popular Somerset village, the property offers wonderfully versatile accommodation comprising porch, welcoming reception hallway, four reception rooms including living room, sitting room, drawing room and study, together with kitchen, ground floor bathroom and conservatory overlooking the impressive gardens.

To the first floor are four well-proportioned bedrooms served by the family bathroom.

Outside:

Outside, the property continues to impress with extensive mature gardens, generous driveway parking and two garages. Offered to the market with no onward chain, this much-loved home presents tremendous potential for modernisation, extension or redevelopment, creating an exciting opportunity for buyers looking to design and craft their forever home in a prime village setting.

Situation:

Ash is a charming Somerset village surrounded by beautiful countryside whilst remaining conveniently positioned for excellent road links via the A303, providing easy access towards London, Exeter and the South West. The nearby villages and towns of Martock, Crewkerne and Yeovil offer a wide range of everyday amenities including supermarkets, independent shops, cafés, schools and leisure facilities. The area is highly regarded for its picturesque rural setting, thriving community atmosphere and abundance of countryside walks, making it an ideal location for families and those seeking village living whilst remaining well connected.
