

, Downing Street, London SW1A 2AA

£100,000

An exceptional lateral penthouse of the very highest order, this magnificent residence occupies an elevated position commanding sweeping panoramic views across a London park and the city skyline beyond. The principal reception space is of extraordinary proportion, its curved floor-to-ceiling glazing flooding the interior with natural light whilst framing uninterrupted vistas that extend to the horizon. The living and dining areas flow seamlessly together in a superb open-plan arrangement, the former centred upon bespoke furniture and a coffered ceiling with integrated ambient lighting, whilst the formal dining room accommodates a grand twelve-seat table beneath striking oversized pendant lights. The kitchen is finished to an exemplary standard, featuring hand-crafted cabinetry in warm oak, a substantial marble-topped island with seating, and a dramatic full-height stone splashback with under-cabinet illumination. A generously proportioned curved terrace wraps around the principal reception, providing an outstanding al fresco entertaining space with sunset views across the parkland treetops — a truly rare offering in the heart of the capital. afdjlasdfjalsfdj
